LONG LIVE THE

K

NG

Time flies! Another action-packed year at King Junior High is drawing to a close. I'm sure in years to come that you will look back upon this school year as one filled with many "happenings." I hope that the majority were happy ones for you.

Good luck to you in the many school years you have left,

Beatrice Ferreira,
principal

This has been said before, but ...

Our years at school are the most character-forming time of our lives. So many wait until they are long out of school before they realize its importance, then look back and try to recall the faded faces, the forgotten names, the distant happenings. We mustn't allow ourselves to fall prey to this habit of ignorance. We have so much good about us, so many wonderful people with whom we can share our future. In this new year, let us promise to live and appreciate each day and the boundless limit of good it brings.

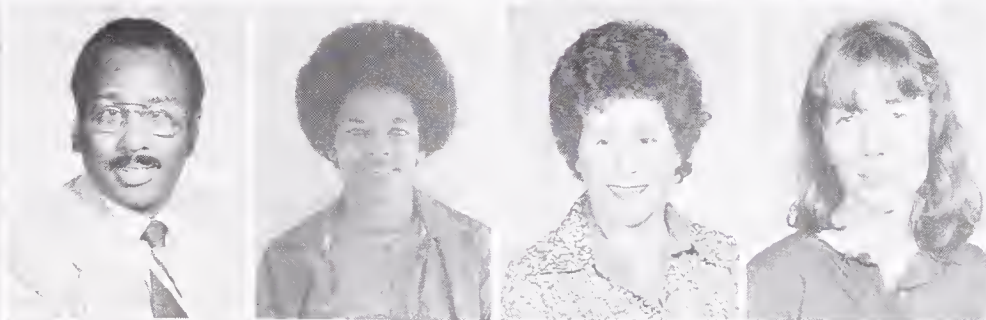

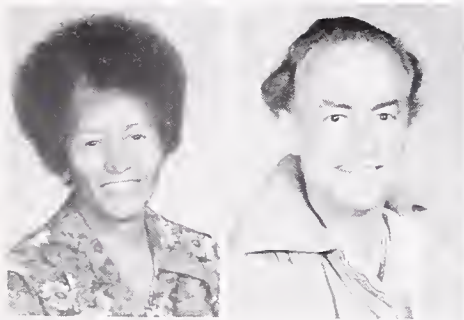

Ed Randolph,
vice principal

King

Down the stairs,
Out the door,
I breathe fresh air,
And slow my pace.

I am a veteran
Of King's massive halls,
Where life is so easily heard!

Before long I will reenter the war
To seek the door of my retreat,
And there the teacher will rule.

"Now, will you talk, or will we have to pound it out of you?!"

"Now now, I have more important things to do."

"Quick, nurse, hand me a scalpel!"

"James, follow that girl!"

Bell rings, stampeding
Kids jam the doorways and then
Silence, they are gone

"Don't worry, Henry, I'll have you out in a minute."

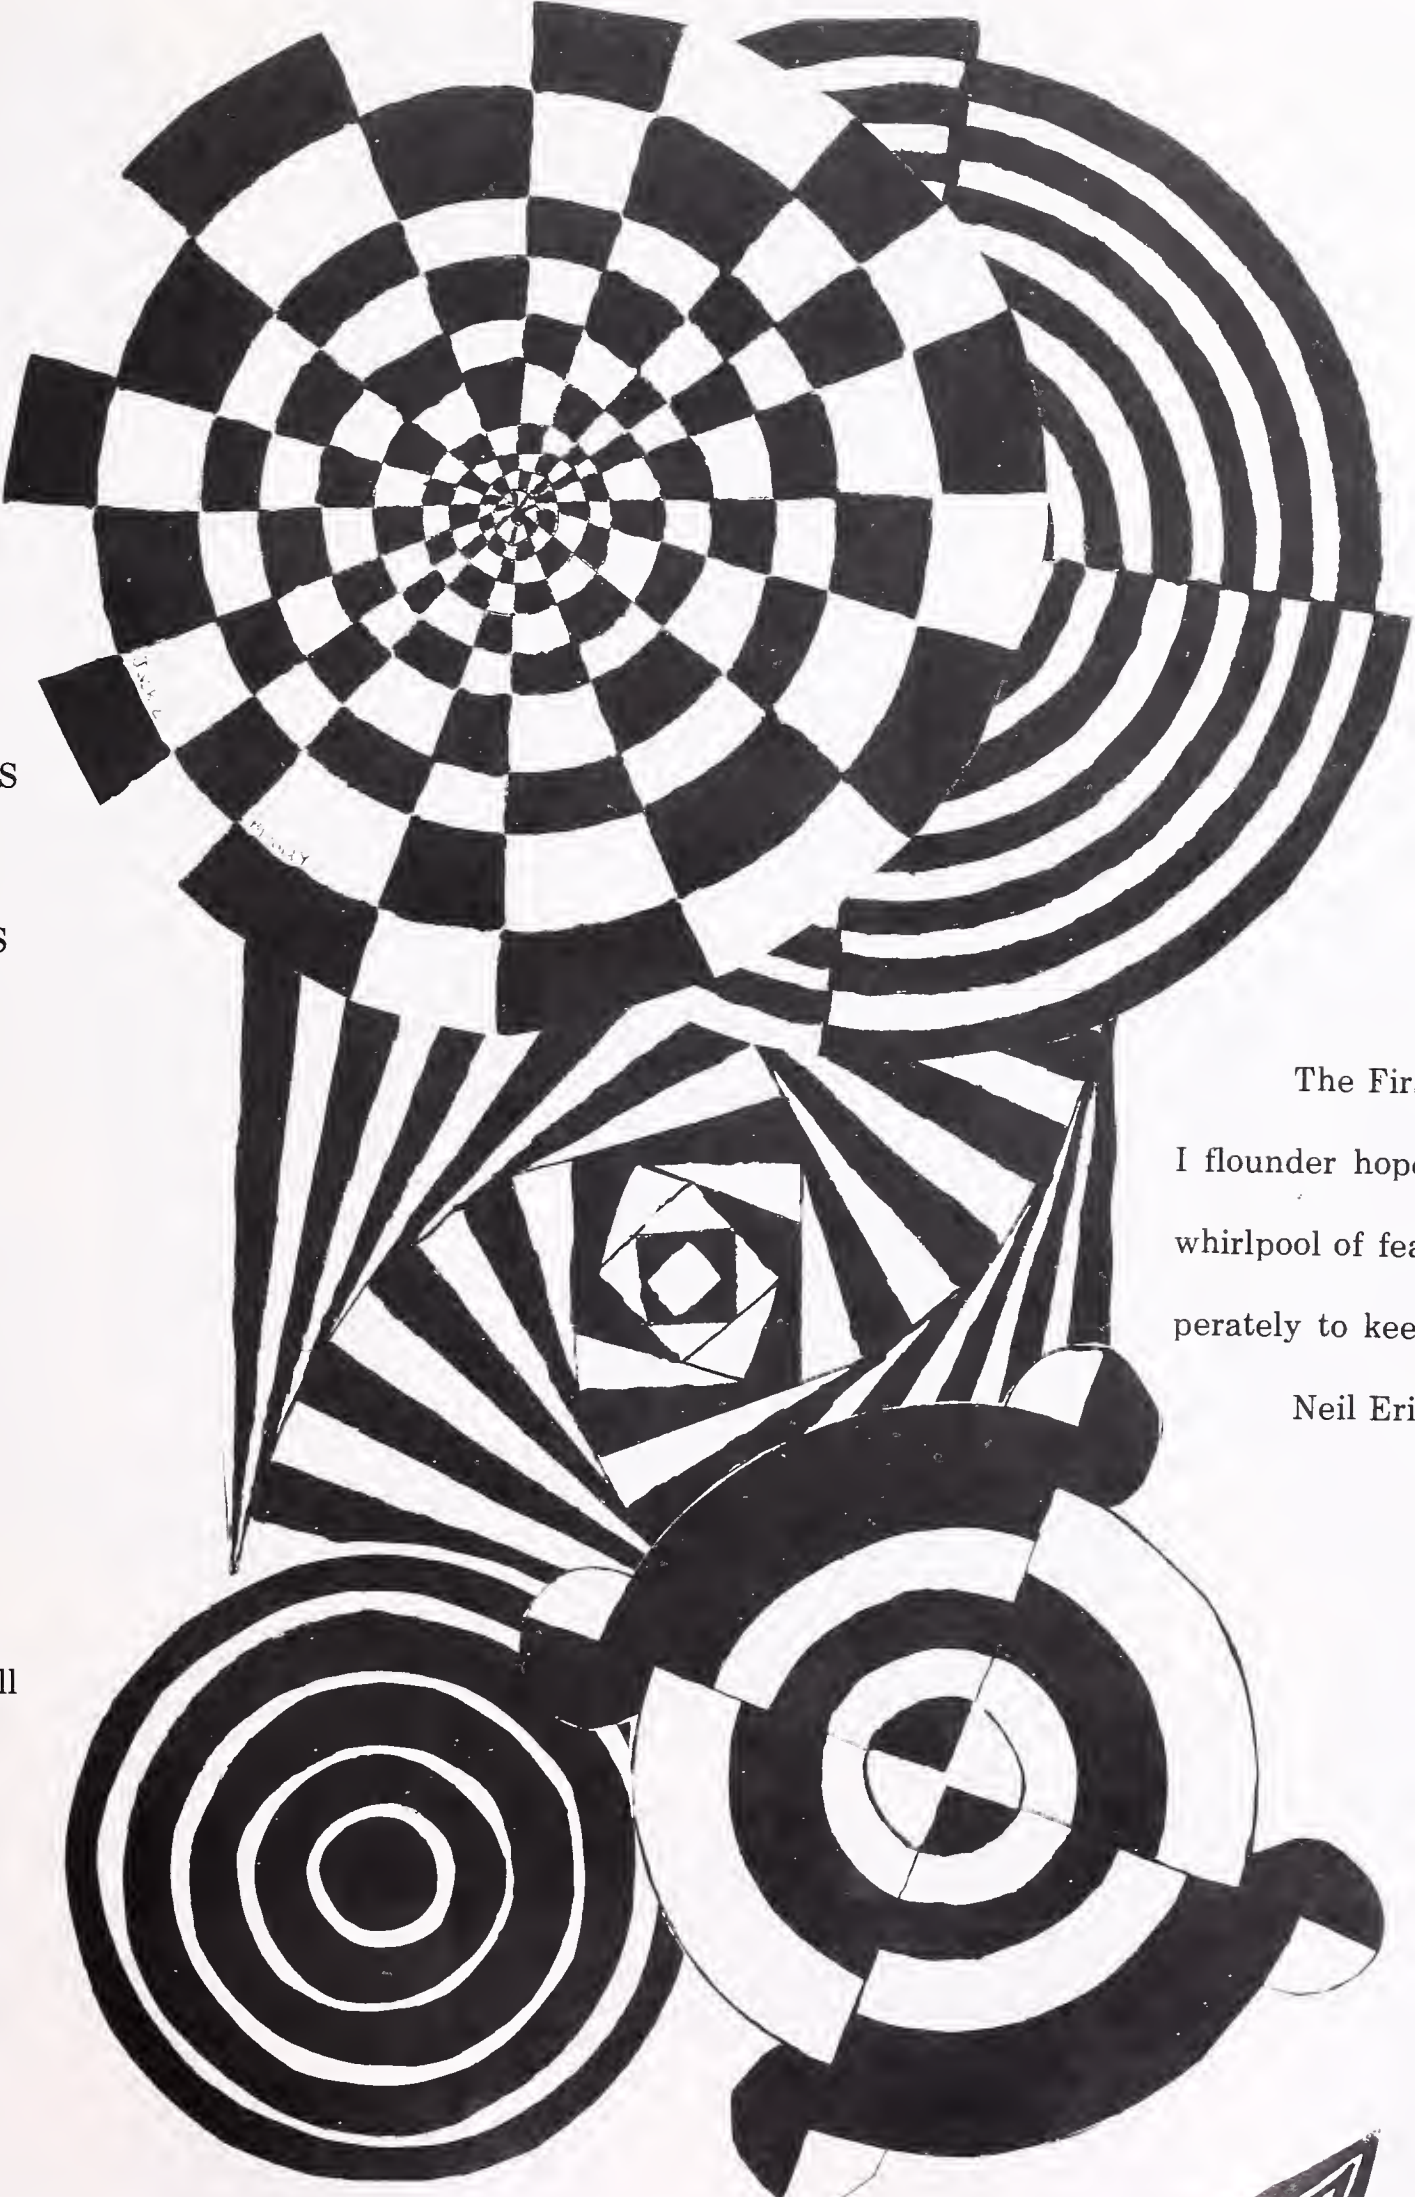

"Uh, Mr. Mason, you know that button you told us never to touch..."

Someday, when I am old and wrinkled, I'll take down my old King yearbook from the shelf and dust off the cover. I'll sit down and wonder, out of all the people who went to school there and all the people who worked there, who is left, and who maybe at this moment is dusting off the jacket of his old King yearbook for 1975. Then, after looking through it, and remembering all of the good times and some of the bad, I'll put it back because - I'll never be there again.
